IMMANUEL PARENTS AND FRIENDS 2016 END OF YEAR REPORT

General

The final meeting of the ILSG P&F for 2016 will be held on 01 December at 7pm in the Senior Unit Kitchen. This meeting will take the form of a Chef’s Toolbox demonstration by Jo Barker with the intent that any proceeds go toward the Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden (SAKG) project.

Throughout the year the P&F group has remained focused on its Mission Statement “Providing a Positive and Friendly Community Beyond the Classroom” and has continued to worked together to provide ‘experiences for students and their families outside the classroom.’

Activities

This year the P&F has:

- Hosted a school disco
- Hosted a wine and cheese night
- Hosted a Parent Information Evening
- Provided support to Family Fun Night through the Hamburger stall
- Conducted a monster raffle at the Cabaret evening
- Provided Pancake mix for Shrove Tuesday
- Provided Goody Bags for Junior Concert
- Funded purchase of Yard Games (Giant Connect 4 and Belly Bumpers)
- Committed funds to support the SAKG

Raised funds through

- Family Fun Day BBQ
- Cabaret Raffle
- School disco
- Recycling of Cans and Bottles
- Weekly subway lunches
- Family Photo Fund Raiser
- Recycling
- Subway Lunch commission

Current activities for completion in 2017

Membership

Despite the efforts of, and outcomes delivered by, the P&F group membership remains limited to a core group of 12. Whilst small, the group is active and keen to make an impact.

The upcoming AGM in February 2017 will see the positions of Secretary and Treasurer declared vacant and it is hoped that new parents to the school can be recruited to the P&F and elected to these positions.
