

MOVIE SCREENING: EMBRACE

Gawler Cinemas: Monday 31st July 2017 at 7.00pm

School Community Event!

This is an event being hosted by the P&F committee (whose fundraising money goes into our school community!)

Please support our school, share with your family and friends (open to everyone - not just school families!) and join us for a fun evening to see an AMAZING film about the positive body image movement.

It's an amazing film and recommend for everyone. Film is made by fellow South Australian Mum Taryn Brumfit, even more reason to support!

When body image activist Taryn Brumfitt posted an unconventional before-and-after photograph in 2013, it was seen by more than 100 million worldwide and sparked an international media frenzy. In her forceful debut, Brumfitt continues her crusade exploring the global issue of body loathing. She travels the world to interview an impressive range of women about their attitudes to their bodies, including: Mia Freedman, the youngest ever editor of the Australian edition of Cosmopolitan; Adelaide researcher Professor Marika Tiggemann; UK talk show host/photographer Amanda de Cadenet; body image blogger Jess Baker (a.k.a. The Militant Baker); and motivational speaker Turia Pitt.

PLEASE NOTE:

Enough tickets must be sold to ensure this screening goes ahead! Funds will be placed on hold until the screening is confirmed, if it doesn't happen those funds will be released! To buy tickets, go to www.fan-force.com or click on the links on our school face book site .
